And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

The Hamlin Little League will hold its first finance drive of the season here Saturday when they will hold a tag day. Each boy taking part be selling tags reading "I support the Little League Program," for $1.00.

Please help support this summer baseball program by giving your dollar. A large number of boys benefit from the program and it takes a great deal of money to keep it going each year.

Like everything else, the costs continue to rise each year as the price of equipment goes up.

If enough people will give a small amount to the league, then no one will have to make a large sacrifice to keep the organization in the black.

Please help these kids out when you are called upon.

The annual clean-up drive will be held here next week and with all of the spring rains that we have had it is important that the breeding places for mosquitoes be eliminated.

Weeds and trash that hold water make good places for the mosquitoes and flies to breed and not only do they become a nuisance, they also spread diseases.

A good clean-up will also improve the looks of our city and make it a more enjoyable place to live.

The 61st regular session of the Texas Legislature rolled to a close this week. Texas taxpayers could breathe a sigh of relief that the bills have stopped rolling, if it were not for the fact that it won't be until after a special session is held that we will know just how bad the taxpayers are going to be hurting.

But at least the spending bills have stopped coming in. But, this did not happen before the legislature set a record in spending. Most of this new money to be spent will be in the field of education, with higher education receiving more attention this session than ever before.

At the time this was written, it was not known what Governor Preston Smith was going to do about the one-year appropriation bill passed by the two houses. He has always been opposed to a one-year bill and felt that the legislature could discharge its duties only by coming up with a two-year bill.

But the legislative leaders, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and House Speaker Gus Mutscher, who favor the one year bill have pretty well boxed the Governor into a corner. If he vetoes the spending bill on his desk and calls the legislature back into session immediately, he has no assurance that the legislature will give what he wants.

Barnes and Mutscher both feel that if the state waits until next year to pass a tax bill it can be lower. Most observers doubt that this will be the case but the two have sold the legislators on this anyway.

Speculation now is that the Governor will wait and see how the voters feel about annual sessions when they vote on the constitutional amendments in August. If they pass it, he will likely wait until next year to call a special session, but, if they reject it then he would call the session this fall.

Because of the delay between the time the spending bills are passed and the time that the tax bills are written, it is hard to form much of an opinion about this session. A multitude of laudable ends were attained by the lawmakers but it is hard to tell right now if we can really afford all of them.

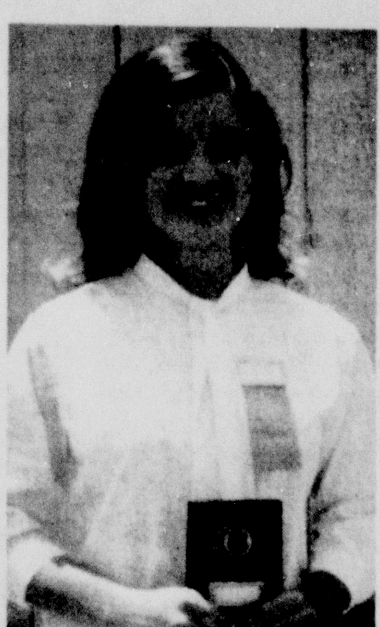

While we are glad that the session is over before many more bills were put through the grinder, we were disappointed that the legislature chose to ignore the reforms needed in our public education system. We could feel a lot kinder about the teachers' pay raise if some of the needed changes had been adopted.

Hamlin FFA Chapter Receives Top Honors At Area Convention

The Hamlin FFA Chapter was named the top chapter of the 79 chapters in Area II at the Area II FFA Convention held in Lamesa Monday and Tuesday of this week. Hamlin will be recognized as a superior or gold emblem chapter at the state convention in Ft. Worth in July. Hamlin is now one of three chapters representing Area II in the National Chapter Rating Contest. Texas will select eleven chapters to compete on the national level.

Individual members of the Hamlin Chapter also made an outstanding showing at the convention. Bob Clifton, the retiring state vice-president from Area II was honored with a plaque as the retiring state officer. He was also named as one of the four American Farmer candidates from Area II. The American Farmer Degree is the highest the Texas FFA Association can confer upon one of its members. One member out of every thousand members is eligible for this degree.

Spencer Ford, Bill Hodnett, and Davis Weaver were all successful candidates for the Lone Star Farmer Degree, the highest the Texas FFA Association can confer upon one of its members. Bill was named the Star Lone Star Farmer of Area II. This means that Bill was the most outstanding candidate for the Lone Star Farmer Degree in Area II. Only three percent of the members of the area can receive this degree. There were 85 applicants.

Two Hamlin FFA members were named winner of National FFA Foundation proficiency awards. Spencer Ford was the area winner in agricultural mechanics. Gil Lain was the area winner in livestock farming. Bill Hodnett was an applicant for the crop farming award.

Charlie Sellers was the Area II winner of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Award. He was also an area runner-up for the Star Chapter Farmer Award.

Dianna Crowley, sweetheart of the Hamlin FFA Chapter and the Stamford District FFA, was first runner-up in the Area II Sweetheart Contest.

Milburn Wink, local vocational agriculture teacher, was named the outstanding district public relations chairman for the area.

All area winners will now compete for the state honors at the state advanced degrees and records check committee meeting now in session in Dallas. Bob Clifton, Bill Hodnett, and Chapter Advisor Wink are attending this meeting.

Attending the Area Convention were Bob Clifton, Gil Lain, Bill Hodnett, Spencer Ford, Davis Weaver, Charlie Sellers, Carlos Gonzalez, Dianna Crowley, Patti Murphree, and Chapter Advisor Wink.

Harold Flemming, Little League president, said that all boys and as many managers as possible will meet at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at Little League Park.

Tags reading "I Support the Little League Program" will be distributed and the boys will then go into the residential section and the downtown business district selling the tags for $1 each.

Workers in the local program hope to raise enough in this one concentrated drive to eliminate the need for any other money raising projects.

The money raised is needed to meet the regular expenses of the program which includes equipment, lights and repairs.

All boys participating in the program, Pee Wee, Farm Club and Little League will be working in the drive.

Clean-up Drive To Open Mon.

Mayor H. W. Madden has proclaimed June 9-23 for Clean-Up in the city.

A real need for clean-up has been brought about by the continued heavy rains in May. Standing water, high weeds, trash and rubbish are perfect breeding spots for mosquitoes, warns the mayor.

The team, made up of 16, 17 and 18 year old boys is coached by V. E. Holt. Any boy in this age bracket that wishes to play may contact him.

Rains Halt Wheat Harvest In Middle

The wheat harvest, in full swing in this area, was halted by rain Tuesday with half of the harvest in.

Robert Fowler, manager of Moore Elevator, said that the rains had stopped harvesting generally in Texas. Of major concern is that the harvest is now underway in Oklahoma and if combine crews move on to that area there may be a shortage of equipment here.

Yields have run from 17 to 40 bushels to the acre, Fowler said, with the average being 26 bushels.

The quality has been good and, if no more rains fall, the .05 inches Tuesday and the .01 Wednesday will not damage the crop. Water is still standing in some fields from the heavy May rains and it will be some time before these fields can be harvested.

Engraved and Printed WEDDING INVITATIONS THE HAMLIN HERALD

As It Looks From Here...

Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — "AFTER VIETNAM" is a favorite expression here in Washington. It seems that about everything anyone wants done can be accomplished "after Vietnam."

Some are promising that all will be set right when the war in Vietnam is concluded. Problems now challenging the Government on every hand can supposedly be cured in short order. This includes the renovation of cities, soothing the unrest which agitates the younger generation and the minority groups and even refurbishment of spiritual and economic destitution which afflicts many Americans.

This attitude adds up to an assumption prevalent in our society's life during the last several decades that money is all that is needed to cure everything.

The whole idea seems to be that when we get things quieted down in Southeast Asia, the billions now being spent in that area can immediately be put to use here at home.

The cost of the effort in Vietnam is blamed for not having all the desirable things here at home which we will have "after Vietnam." Many of these same people have never expressed a concern about Government spending before. The concern seems only directed at the purpose for which it is spent. That same objection will also be directed against the refurbishing of our National defense, which is going to be necessary to a very large degree "after Vietnam," if we are to maintain a position of strength in the world.

The refrain grows that there should be a reappraisal of our military commitments. Apparently this means a reappraisal of the kind of world in which we live. Some sort of assumption must be drawn that somehow our potential enemies have had a change of heart and that if we are not strong militarily, they will not fear us but will love us in our weakness.

The advocates of everything "AFTER VIETNAM" do not show signs of considering what would happen if it should turn out that high expenditures for military spending must continue. There is no admitting possibilities that the balance of power in the world may be shifting in favor of our adversaries instead of the other way around. The whole implication is that no such thing could result from a full-scale reappraisal of our military needs. It is rather that the United States can safely pull in its horns, slash military spending and turn her whole attention to curing the evils on the home front. The fact is that the "after Vietnam" thesis is so strong that priorities are already being established. These priorities leave military preparedness some place down the line from these activities which are supposed to relieve all our society's ills. It is already being talked that to bail out bankrupt cities the Federal Government must come across with another $20 billion per year, which just about doubles the present Federal contribution. It is further being talked that the Federal Government will need to pay about one-third the cost of all local and State Governments.

There is reason for suspicion about some of this "after Vietnam" business. In the first place there just might be reason to question whether it is being used as a convenient cover for lack of workable programs at the present time. There should be a question as to whether all of this money we don't have will be available for all these things. No one is saying anything about using "after Vietnam" resources to get our fiscal house in order — like paying off some of our debts, stemming inflation by balancing the budget, strengthening the integrity of the dollar by reducing some of the tax burden from the necks of the taxpayer.

There is nothing wrong in looking to the time when problems of our society can be solved to the greatest possible extent. At the same time the idea that money alone can meet the challenge is false. In the opinion of some who have espoused this concept in the past, the $20 billion or more now being spent on some of these problems has resulted in chaos. Another $20 billion or so under present methods could produce twice as much chaos unless the spending is done more effectively.

This, coupled with the need for refurbishing our military, hardly holds out the promise some are making "after Vietnam."

Mrs. Mary Brown Gets Scholarship To UTA Conference

Mrs. Mary E. Brown, Hamlin High School civics teacher, has been granted a full scholarship for the Living Textbook Conference to be held at the University of Texas at Arlington. The theme will center around, "Use of the Daily Newspaper in the Classroom." Sponsors are the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and the Amon G. Carter Foundation.

Claude A. Herne, Jr., TSTA president, will greet the conference participants at the opening session; and Harry H. Ransom, Chancellor of the University of Texas, will be keynote speaker.

Purpose of the conference is to illustrate the possibilities of enriching classroom instruction with the daily paper by giving participants a basis for judging and reading newspapers and creating an awareness of social responsibility.

Preventative Action Program Planned for Screwworm Fight

Livestock producers in Jones County and throughout Texas are making plans to wage a more effective preventive action campaign against screwworms.

Charlie Myatt, chairman of the Screwworm Eradication Committee for Jones County, is asking all livestock producers to cooperate in this eradication program.

The county committee calls producers' attention to the fact that preventive action is needed by all livestock owners and wildlife enthusiasts in order to prevent a major outbreak of screwworms this year. The "screwworm vigilantes" emphasize that in 1968, a total of 9,268 Texas screwworm cases were confirmed, and Arizona and California and New Mexico had outbreaks of major concern.

Preventive action — such as inspecting all livestock regularly, treating all wounds and spraying herds — is needed by producers if a serious screwworm epidemic is to be avoided this year.

At a recent meeting of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation in San Antonio, Dolph Briscoe, Jr., Foundation President from Uvalde, told producers attending the screwworm danger this year is more serious than last, and "no ranch in Texas is immune to the threat of screwworms." He pointed out that cases have spread to a wider portion of the State this spring than last, and said cases and fly migrations are increasing in Mexico.

Briscoe emphasized that prevention of cases is more important than ever, since it cost about $800 to produce enough sterile flies to treat a single screwworm case. "So preventive practices are needed in combination with sterile fly treatment. Screwworm eradication is everyone's business."

County Chairman Myatt announces that collection kits and vials for sending in worm samples to the Mission Screwworm Laboratory are available at the county agent's office.

The group chose to concentrate on the first objective and planned programs around the following projects: Stable Home-Stable Life, Home-making - Our Future, Make Time Work for You, To Dare Is To Care, and Decisions that Count.

The officers present were

Jana Ferguson, Peggy Jones, Jan Young, Marcia Steele, Latrese Williams, Wendy Russell, and Judy Adair. Jana Ferguson was named chairman of the yearbook committee and Jan Young, chairman of the publicity committee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Woodruff Sr. were in Denton over the weekend to attend the graduation exercises at Texas Woman's University when their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert (Ann) Woodruff Jr. received a bachelor of arts degree.

She was one of the 59 honor graduates. She had a double major of English and Spanish. She and her daughter, Robin Ann, will continue to live in Denton until Sept. 8 when Lt. Woodruff returns from Viet Nam. He is serving as an Intelligence Officer.

Mrs. Woodruff will fly to Hawaii June 5 to meet Lt. Woodruff on R & R.

File Early Tuley Urges for S. S. Disability Claims

"Claims for social security disability benefits should be filed early," R. R. Tuley, Jr., social security manager stated. They take a bit longer to process than most retirement and death claims, since the medical evidence in each case must be evaluated in detail to determine whether or not the disability is severe enough to meet the requirements of the law, he explained.

Persons having disabilities which will prohibit their working for 12 months or more ought to apply for benefits as soon as possible. Since disability payments can begin no earlier than the seventh month after the disability began, a disabled worker has six months in which to determine whether or not the disability is severe enough to meet the requirements of the law, he explained.

He urged any worker who might qualify for such benefits to check with the social security office at Room 2321 of the Federal Building, Abilene, as soon as possible.

"Whatsoever Things"

By DONALD E. WILDMON

Mary Elizabeth Ferguson 1924-1968. She was in traction and could hardly move her neck, her body was eaten up with cancer, but still she had that smile about her and never once complained. We shared some of our thoughts there in the room. "I'm hoping to come back to Mississippi," she said, "but if I die what have I got to fuss about. He has given me nearly a half century to live and I have spent half of it serving Him. It's been a good life!"

Bobbie didn't have much money. She made that decision early in her life. But Bobbie was rich, rich in goodness, and kindness, and concern, and richness all the world needs? And Bobbie will never be listed among the great, except to her friends and to Him.

Bobbie helped me many times when the going got rough. I see now that He used her, brought her to me when I needed some extra strength. And it was awful tough walking out of that hospital room for the last time. It is hard to say good-bye when you know that you will probably never say good-bye again.

The world is a better place now because Bobbie was here. People in India, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Arkansas, Mexico, Costa Rica, Chile, and Mississippi are just a little bit richer because of her presence. They not only heard the Good News but saw a living example. "Father, we have lost more than we can afford to lose. Send us another Bobbie. The world is just too poor to do without her. Amen."

Neinda Philosopher Comes Out Strong for New Tax System He Believes He Has Discovered

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One explores what he calls a new taxing system this week.

Dear editor:

I was out here on this Johnson grass farm sitting in the middle of Spring and not in the mood for doing much of anything but as the day wore on I finally got my ambition up enough to pull a newspaper out of my back pocket where I'd been saving it for a couple of days and I'm glad I did.

I have discovered a new principle of taxation, a sort of guideline for the nation, and I'm going to do all in my power to get it adopted.

According to an article in the paper, a Congressman, on being sounded out about an increase in taxes to provide some additional service some group was demanding none of them luckily from his district, said no, and gave as his reason: "I don't think the country is in a mood for more taxes."

That's the principle I'm talking about. That's the guideline.

If Congress will adopt the idea that it can raise all the taxes it wants to so long as the country's in the mood for it, you won't hear me complaining.

Lone Star Gas Now 60 Years Old

Sixty years ago this week, history was made at a meeting in a small room in the Oriental Hotel in Dallas, Tex.

There a company was formed and the groundwork laid that one day would help boost the states of Texas and Oklahoma out of a wood and coal age into an industrial revolution.

The founders named the new company Lone Star Gas Company after the single star in the flag of the state in which the company was chartered on June 4, 1909, the state in which they soon would construct the southwest's first long-distance, large-diameter natural gas transmission pipeline.

In the six decades since the company's formation, Lone Star has grown as dramatically as the area it serves.

"We've come a long way from that first 130-mile pipeline. We've had to," said L. T. Potter, chairman. "Today Lone Star is four companies related by a common bond of product and customer service. Lone Star Gas is the parent firm and Lone Star Producing Company, Nipak, Inc., and Lone Star Gathering Company are subsidiaries."

BAROMETER for the FUTURE

Webster says that a barometer is an instrument measuring the weight or pressure of the atmosphere, foretelling and measuring changes of weather and altitude.

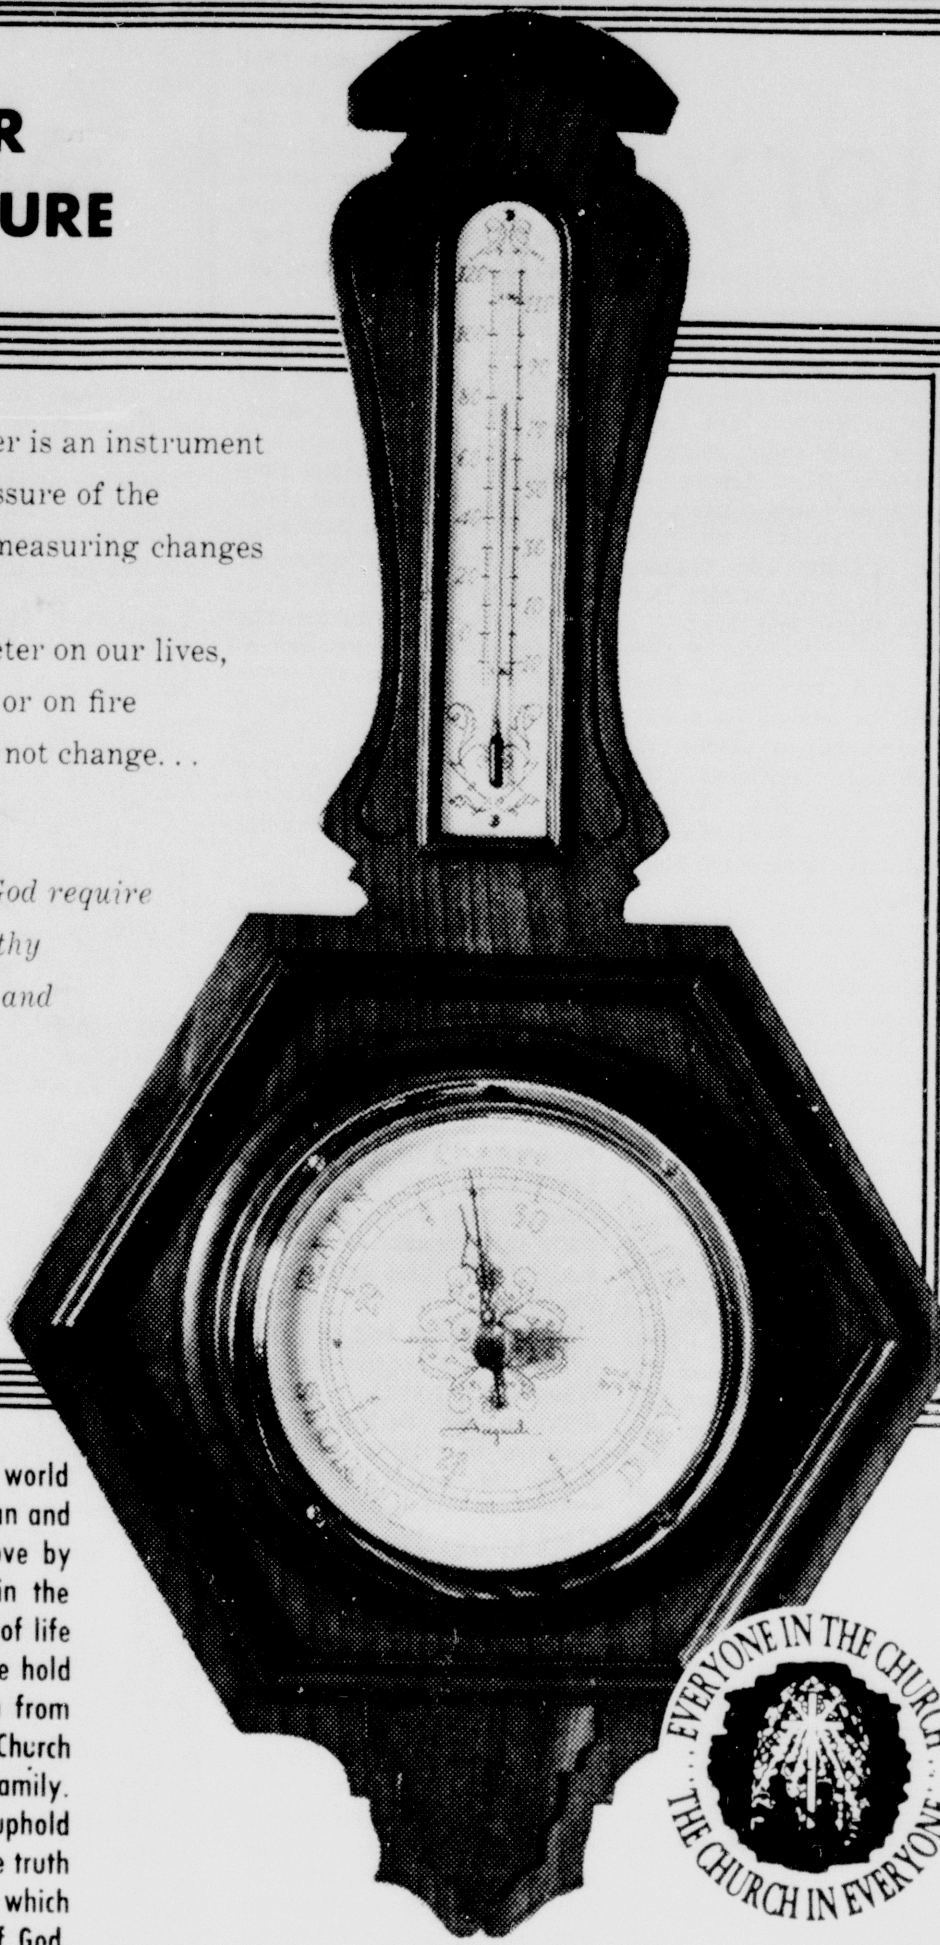

If God were to place a barometer on our lives, would we be cold, lukewarm, or on fire for the Lord. The past we can not change. . . the future is up to us.

"... what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul." ATTEND CHURCH REGULARLY

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

AUSTIN — Texas lawmakers have written the record of the 61st regular session, but their toughest job — levying the taxes to pay for what they have ordered — remains to be done.

In adopting a $2.8 billion one-year state budget (for 1970), they invited a special session to complete appropriations for 1971 and to decide on the inevitable major tax bill. Legislative leaders, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and House Speaker Gus Mutscher, claim the latter will be smaller if the finance showdown can be delayed until next year.

Gov. Preston Smith, who holds the key to the timing of the special session, has made clear from the start that he feels the Legislature should face up to a biennial budget and the raising of needed revenue. He could veto the single-year bill and call another session immediately — or accept it and schedule the remaining financial work whenever he pleases.

Many all-time legislative records have topped at this session.

Certainly, the 61st session passed more legislation than any before it, and it was committed in advance to spending more money.

A multitude of laudable ends were attained. Giant strides were made in the field of education. Teachers got a $61.9 million pay raise. Overhauls were ordered in the field of vocational and technical education. Three new medical schools, a dental school and two new nursing schools were authorized. Also, three new universities, plus an experimental upper level branch college in Laredo. Never have so many new higher educational facilities been launched in a single session.

A master water plan got all the legislative support it could expect. Workmen's compensation laws were updated. Sweeping controls were approved over air and water pollution. A constitutional amendment to legalize the sale of liquor by the drink was submitted, along with many other proposed changes in the constitution. State employees got a 6.8 percent pay raise.

Texas' 61st Legislature was a busy, productive session. It was a liberal-spending one with the bills yet to be paid. "The citizenship of Texas will applaud our work at this session and give us their full support when we return to appropriate and finance the second year of the biennium," concluded Speaker Mutscher.

LAW ENFORCEMENT PLAN ADVANCED — Texas' new State Criminal Justice Council has recommended a comprehensive $1.1 million law enforcement plan that covers a wide scope of activities.

Governor Smith will analyze it before it goes to the U. S. Department of Justice for approval and funding under the Federal Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968. Funds for a two-year operation must be committed by June 30.

Texas received $234,000 for riot control and $830,350 in planning money six months ago.

Council voted priority funding to these programs: Prevention of juvenile delinquency, education and training in all elements of the criminal justice system, regional and statewide information and communication systems, community relations programs, experimental and demonstration projects to test and evaluate new approaches to solving problems in criminal justice system.

Approved funds will be disbursed to 21 geographical planning regions of the state. Congress now is considering funding which would provide Texas more than $11 million in action money, plus planning aid for next year to develop a long-range plan and begin putting it into effect.

BEAUTIFUL, BEAUTIFUL TEXAS — Governor Smith will keynote a one-day workshop June 11 to stimulate the preservation and enhancement of natural beauty in Texas. This second annual clean-up and beautification conference of the Beautify Texas Council will be held at the Villa Capri Motor Hotel in Austin.

Other speakers will include O. P. Schnabel of San Antonio, president of the Council, DeWitt Greer, chairman of the State Highway Commission, R. H. (Dick) Hackendahl of Washington, D. C., director of the National Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Bureau, Mayor C. P. Waggoner of Grand Prairie, Earl Rudder, president of Texas A&M University and Reagan Brown, sociologist - community improvement specialist with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

Beautify Texas Council was organized in 1967 to combat the litter problem and to advise and act as a coordinating agency through which business and industry, government, public and private organizations may work together to solve the problems of Texas beautification.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — A person not registered as a voter is ineligible for election or appointment as an independent school district trustee. So advises Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin in ruling on a Spring Creek school election issue. A similar opinion was returned earlier following a Honey Grove controversy.

In other recent opinions, Martin held that:

Texas Foundation School Fund Budget Committee must include cost estimates for the school program training all prison inmates over and under 21 years of age who are not high school graduates.

A bill providing for private road construction and maintenance in counties of 10,000 to 10,050 population is unconstitutional as a local and special bill.

Bexar County is required to advertise for competitive bids on all purchases including road machinery, although some emergency buying is expected.

State funds cannot be used for payment of group insurance policies for legislators and their dependents.

An act to prohibit corporations from engaging in farming or ranching (allowing a 10-year-period to sell interests) would be constitutional.

State treasurer must publish information on unclaimed funds over $50 held and owing by life insurance companies.

GRANTS APPROVED — Follow Through Head Start grants have been extended to seven Texas school districts by order of the governor.

Districts benefitting are Corpus Christi, Dimmitt, Fort Worth, Houston, Rosebud, San Diego and Uvalde.

Follow Through program will carry benefits of pre-school Head Start training into primary grades of public schools to make sure children maintain their gains.

The steering committee of the new Pork Producers Association met in the conference room of Stamford Electric Cooperative, May 23.

According to Darryl Schoonmaker, the main purpose of the meeting was to outline and determine the feasibility of a Park Producers Association. The steering voted unanimously to organize an association.

Dan R. Griffith, Chairman, appointed a five man sub-committee to work up a constitution and by-laws to present to the next meeting. Also, the sub-committee is to set up a future educational program.

Most of the recipes in this column have been for desserts so a change of pace this week is a potato salad recipe that is easy to make and somewhat different.

We thank Mrs. S. L. Knox for this contribution.

POTATO SALAD

2 cans new potatoes, drained and thinly sliced
½ c. sour cream
½ c. salad dressing or mayonnaise
1 cucumber, thinly sliced

1 onion, thinly sliced
Salt and pepper to taste.
Mix together. May be served right after making or chilled one hour. Keeps well in refrigerator. Cucumber and onion may be varied to suit taste. (An egg slicer is very handy for slicing whole new potatoes.)

Impala Custom Coupe

Match that, anybody.

We give you an honest increase in car at an honest decrease in price.

Take the '69 Impala above. We improved the ride. Made it quieter inside. Added an anti-theft locking device. Put steel guard rails in the doors.

Still, this Impala with a 300-hp V8, Turbo Hydra-matic, advanced-design power disc brakes, head restraints, whitewalls and wheel covers is priced $101* less than in 1968.

The 300-hp V8 is priced $40 less than last year's 275-hp. Turbo Hydra-matic costs less. Power disc brakes about half as much. Whitewalls a little less. Wheel covers about the same. And head restraints are now standard.

Upping value and dropping price. That's the way Chevrolet operates.
